had gone back to civilian life. Lawyers for the Pentagon, the Justice Department and other federal agencies have been studying possible courses of action against ex-soldiers in the My Lai case.

Senior legal officers said a likely path would be to try to invoke either Article 18 or Article 21 or both. They said the sections have not yet been tested before the Supreme Court.

The lawyers cite also what they call "the law of nations" as applying to civilians as well as military men.

This is an apparent reference to Geneva conventions covering treatment of prisoners of war and civilians in wartime.

A military commission approach figures in the thinking of government lawyers. As commander in chief, they say, President Nixon could establish such a commission to try former soldiers accused of war crimes.

Such a commission, sources said, could rely for its legal basis on the Geneva convention.

Government lawyers cite a 1942 ruling by the Supreme Court as supporting the jurisdiction of military commissions of this sort.

The commission involved at that time had been established by President Franklin D. Roosevelt to try eight Nazi saboteurs who had been captured after landing in the United States. The Nazis were convicted and executed.

First Time, Eclipse of Sun by Earth

By PAUL REGER
AP Aerospace Writer
SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — The space agency today released more pictures of Apollo 12 astronauts working on the moon, with emphasis on the experiments put onto the Ocean of Storms.

The still pictures followed by a day the release of movie film showing the first views of the moonwalks last week, views denied the public by a camera failure at the start of the first excursion.

The footage also includes a view never seen by man—the earth eclipsing the sun. Astronaut Alan L. Bean called it "the most spectacular sight of our whole flight."

The photographs released today concentrate on the deployment of the Apollo lunar experiment package near the landing craft Intrepid.

Bean is seen unloading, carrying and deploying the experiment package. All around him can be seen the utter desolation that is the moon's surface.

One view shows Bean standing alone—completely alone—where no man before had trod. There is nothing and no one else within view and the complete emptiness of the lunar surface is stunning.

A trick of light forms an unexplained blue halo about his startling white suit. Beyond him is only the flat lunar horizon and the blackness of space.

Other views show Bean working with special tools to remove the atomic element which powers the experiment package and carrying the experiments, like barbed wire, across the pocked pitted surface.

The views of him walking show a cloud of dust being kicked up by his feet. It seems to cling to his spacesuit.

The Magna Carta, the charter of English liberty, is often called the Great Law in history.

2nd Accident Proved Fatal

NEW GLOUCESTER, Maine (AP) — When William E. Taylor Jr.'s pickup truck turned over Thursday on Route 26, passersby helped him right the vehicle, then called police to report the mishap.

When state police arrived at the scene, Taylor, 26, of Portland, was gone. They found his truck down the road, down an embankment, with Taylor dead.

Mortgage Rate on Homes Spiraling

WASHINGTON (AP) — The average effective mortgage rate for new homes rose to 8.12 per cent in October, continuing an upward spiral for the 11th straight month.

The Federal Home and Loan Bank Board reported the bad news for homebuyers and the construction industry Thursday.

There was a wide range in rates charged across the country with the highest average of 9.13 per cent in Seattle, Wash. This was a jump of about 1/2 per cent over a year earlier.

The San Francisco-Oakland, Calif., area also had a high rate of 8.97 per cent.

On the other end of the scale, Philadelphia, Pa., had an average effective rate of 7.07 per cent.

The board's report shows life insurance companies charged an average 8.48 per cent and mortgage companies were right behind at 8.45 per cent on their new home loans.

Court having said in 1955 that "all deliberate speed" would be all right—it discarded that standard Oct. 29—there was no stampee to carry out desegregation.

But when it came to coping with violent resistance and to enforcing the law as restated by the Supreme Court, neither Eisenhower nor Kennedy hesitated at calling out troops, regardless of how repugnant this was to southerners or anyone else. So it was that troops were deployed in Little Rock, Ark., in 1957 and Oxford, Miss., in 1962.

It had been three years in the one instance, eight in the other, since Chief Justice Earl Warren delivered the breakthrough opinion against segregation. Two days later, Eisenhower held a news conference and he was asked whether he had any advice to give the South as to how to react.

"Not in the slightest," the President replied. "The Supreme Court has spoken and I am sworn to uphold the constitutional process in this country, and I will obey."

He did say, though, that he thought Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina had made a very fine statement in saying: "Let's be calm and let's be reasonable and let's look this thing in the face."

izvestia commented favorably Thursday on the "businesslike manner" of the talks, but claimed that the U.S. "military-industrial complex" is endangering them.

The official news agency Tass reported Rogers' favorable remarks about the negotiations and noted that he said U.S. testing of multiwarhead missiles makes U.S.-Soviet agreement on a moratorium for them more difficult. But Tass omitted Rogers' point that Soviet testing has the same effect.

The Soviet Defense Ministry newspaper Red Star published another statement in Moscow today that seemed designed to counter any tendency toward military relaxation engendered by the disarmament talks.

A group of young army officers adopted a resolution saying that "the imperialist aggressors are preparing a new war against the Soviet Union" and its allies, and declaring that "the Soviet armed forces are always in military readiness" to meet the threat.

Sources here suggested several possible reasons for these critical undertones. They said the Kremlin might be warning the United States that it will not sell out at Helsinki, or might be trying to assure its allies and the Soviet public that it is standing firm, or both.

The American delegation spent most of Thanksgiving Day exchanging messages with Washington and making other preparations for today's meeting. Thursday evening the envoys went to a turkey dinner held by U.S. Ambassador Val Peterson.

Boys Have Demanded Rights, Now Sporting Lengthy Outer Clothes

By JOY STILLEY
NEW YORK (AP) — Just when we were beginning to be able to tell the girls from the boys by their maxicoats, we've had a dirty trick played on us. The boys have demanded equal rights and are now sporting lengthy outer garments themselves.

This has put the guessing game right back where it's been for some time: the contestant has a 50-50 chance of nailing down the gender of a long-haired, long-coated individual on the first try.

Nobody can blame the males for joining the street sweepers' union, with ankle-length coats as their uniform. They're just getting back at the gals who have been "borrowing" their clothing ever since the first blue-jeaned female talked her father into giving her the shirt off his back.

They emphasize, however, that evidence from Apollo 11 and unmanned probes indicates the chance of lunar life is extremely remote.

The Apollo 12 astronauts—Charles Conrad Jr., Richard F. Gordon Jr. and Alan L. Bean—nearly landed in their quarantine trailer aboard the carrier Hornet, which recovered them from the South Pacific Hawaii.

The Hornet is to reach Hawaii about 9 p.m. EST tonight. There the trailer will be transferred to a jet cargo plane for a flight to the quarantine laboratory at Houston's Manned Spacecraft Center. The astronauts face 11 more days of isolation after they reach Houston early Saturday.

Thursday, a glum Gordon went through the traditional initiation into the royal domain of Neptune Rex—an equator-crossing tradition that dates back many years—while his two astronaut copilots roared with laughter.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bittel

MY READERS ANSWER THE MAIL

Dear Helen: I'm glad you pointed out the father-daughter relationship to the immature wife who said she and her friends expected and needed spankings from their husbands.

This sounds like kids playing house, with the little boy father spanking the dolls. And when the children come along, will the wife be right down there with the kids, standing in line for her paddling? How could she ever be adult enough to handle her offspring if she continues as a little girl?

I'm glad my husband treats me as a woman. Certainly we argue, but we also discuss, and communicate. — UNSPANKED AND HAPPY

Dear Helen: In some countries there's a custom of giving a bridegroom a paddle on his wedding day. But in this country they gave women the vote! Need I say more? — MRS. P.C.

Dear Mrs. P: They also give girls rolling pins as wedding gifts. Emancipated, these Americans! — H.

Dear Helen: I would like to ask "Spanked Wife" what she does when her HUSBAND is the one who is cantankerous, nagging, extravagant, temperamental. Does SHE have spanking rights

too—or is he perfect?—HAI

Dear Helen: If a woman is old enough to be married, she should be mature enough to have outgrown the need for spanking.—

Dear Helen: When my wife has been naughty and makes me mad and deserves a spanking, I put her over my knee to deliver the good old bare-bottom whack—but then I'm not mad any more!—MR. E.W.

Dear Helen: I have been married 25 years to a man whose father was from the old country and ruled with an iron hand. Therefore, my husband maintains that a good sound paddling is the quickest and most effective way to deal with an unruly wife.

This was quite a shock to me at first, as I had never received a spanking until after I got married. Recently I had too much to drink and we had a nasty argument. I could hardly sit down for a week!

We have two children who were never subjected to this type of discipline. My husband is otherwise a fine man, very generous and loving to his family. My marriage on the whole is most satisfactory. I am only spanked for really serious infractions, and I suppose this is a cross I have to bear. I was glad to read that other women experience it, too. James—we feel like a—KINDNESS—was Dear Helen: You made some comments on whether or not legalized prostitution was a good idea. I think it should be legalized, as there would be a lot less frustrated people around. It might eliminate those old restrictive guilt feelings about sex, and lessen sex crimes. In Amsterdam, there is legal prostitution and virtually no crime and little divorce. These may not correlate, but at least it shows legal prostitution does not increase crime and divorce. These may not correlate, but at least it shows legal prostitution doesn't increase crime and divorce.

I'm against any legislation as to what I should do with my own body. Not that I plan anything, but I just don't think morals should be legalized.—M.Y.

Dear Helen: Licensed "houses" would provide a major control site against VD. They would also provide additional revenue to the state, and cut down illegal operations, plus all the crimes that go with them. Then too, girls who don't want to wouldn't have to any more, to keep their boy friends.—T.J.

Dear Helen: Perhaps it's the oldest profession, but it shouldn't be dignified by legality. It is not a profession to be proud of!

A man without self-control is like a city broken into and left without walls.—Proverbs 25:28.

Forced to Wire, Hope Takes Title

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

We finally made it. Forced down to the wire in a brutal defensive battle, the Hope Bobcats outlasted the aroused Camden Panthers 13-6 for the 4-AA Championship Wednesday night before an overflow crowd at Hammons Stadium.

Six victories closed Hope's season at 11-2, but the Panthers were high as a kite and played much better than their final 7-5 record indicates. Neither offense could generate enough momentum to keep going in the crucial situations, and it was 7-6 until Bobcat Larry McWilliams ran an interception 42 yards to pay dirt on the final play of the game.

It was by far the toughest of the eleven Hope wins, and Camden gave what many of their followers called "the best effort of the whole year." And the 14 Bobcat seniors wound up their careers in the tensest game of their lives, but that defense did its job when the chips were down.

Artis Martin had his roughest night, gaining 119 yards on 33 carries. That gave him a season final total of 1503 on 236 carries along with 17 touchdowns for 102 points, some records that could stand here for a long time.

Early in the first quarter both teams set up their game pattern; Hope maintaining a definite edge in statistics and field position but with both defenses rising to the occasion in every clutch situation.

Each got off one advance in the opening segment, with Camden moving to the Hope 21 before losses gave the Bobcats possession at the 32. Then the Bobcats drove to the Panther 25 before running out of downs themselves.

Led by end Calvin Johnson, the Camden defense spent the second period stopping threats by downing Hope quarterback Ronnie Massanelli for several losses. The Bobcat defense, meanwhile, kept up its good pursuit and kept the Panthers from even smelling the goal line.

Midway in the second quarter, Bobcat Lee Davis returned a punt 18 yards to the Hope 48, and the Cats were in business.

With 3rd and ten at the 48, Massanelli rolled out of the pocket and rammed ten yards to the Camden 42. A piling penalty moved that on down to the 27, but Massanelli didn't get up after the late hit and had the breath knocked from him.

Soph Steve Harris entered the game as the quarterback, and the Hope fans gave him a loud greeting of encouragement which probably went a long way. On first down, Harris kept on a sneak which was fairly successful all night, and got six yards to the 21.

Massanelli came back in, and fullback Gary Jones got the first down at the 17 on the next play. Martin swept to the right for a nine-yard pickup, then Massanelli was swarmed for no gain.

With 3rd and one, Artis Martin took the pigskin and broke into the end zone for the first score with 2:46 left in the half, and the Bobcats fans went wild. Ronny Brown booted the critical conversion, and Hope led 7-0.

Camden came flying back with quarterback Jimmy Foyil hitting end Chip Rayford with good pass blocking. From the Panther 36, Foyil passed for two first downs, including a 12-yarder to the Hope 36 to Rayford on a 4th and seven gamble.

From the 36 with third down, Rayford ran a deep pattern and beat four Hope defenders to the ball at the Bobcat nine-yard line, with only nine seconds left in the half.

There was time for two plays, but two incompletions used up that time and at intermission the Cats led it 7-0.

Receiving the third-period kickoff, Hope drove into Camden territory but again ran out of downs at the Panther 30. Moments later, though, Bobcat safety Sidney Waller snagged his seventh interception at his own 35 and made it back to the Camden 44.

Still the Panther defense throttled the Hope running attack, and hit Massanelli for a couple of drive-killing losses.

They fought back and forth, exchanging punts with neither team making much of its offensive opportunities. Then came the Bobcats' first bad break, which nearly cost the whole ball game.

Hope kicker David Still punted to Panther Bill Jordan at the Camden 32, and the speedster broke clear at the 40 and headed for the end zone.

Jordan had the angle on everybody, but Still made a frantic chase and caught him at the nine-yard after a 59-yard return.

Backed to the wall for the first time, the Hope defense hit Panther halfbacks James Nance and Thomas Dansby for only short gains, and suddenly it was 4th and goal at the five.

With a play from Camden Coach George Burke, Foyil faked in the middle and turned on the speed around left end for the touchdown. This came with only 7:00 left in the season, and the Hope 7-6 lead looked mighty slender when the Panthers lined up for a two-point conversion.

This time, though, Bobcats Lynn Norton and Jim Afford led a rush to the retreating Foyil, who was smothered at the ten before he could pass. That left it at 7-6, but Camden had all of the momentum.

Nobody could keep the Panthers from stopping the Hope offense now, and they did so twice more to get possession. They got it last time with 2:01 left at their 26, and went to the air.

On another fourth down move with five yards to go, Foyil hit tight end Randy Garner at the 40 as pandemonium started breaking loose. Several incompletions followed, but the clock ran down to 0:04 as Camden moved to the line for one last fling, still only trailing 7-6.

Foyil tried a short one for Bill Jordan in the left flat, but Larry McWilliams got his position and picked it off. Several boys on that field were faster than the senior Hope linebacker, but for this play they weren't going to catch him and he made it 42 yards to the end zone as the buzzer sounded.

Everybody flooded the field,

Sizemore Is Named Rookie of the Year

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Ted Sizemore, the versatile Los Angeles Dodger infielder who alternated between shortstop and second base, was named today the Rookie-of-the-Year in the National League.

Sizemore, 24, converted into a shortstop by Manager Walter Alston last spring after spending 1968 in the minors as a catcher, won by a surprisingly large margin in the vote of a 24-man committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America, two from each league city.

The seventh Dodger to win the rookie award received 14 votes in his landslide victory. Coco Laboy, Montreal third baseman, and Al Oliver, Pittsburgh first baseman, each received three votes. Bob Didier, Atlanta catcher, and Larry Hise, Philadelphia outfielder, each drew two votes.

The award, announced by Jack Lang, secretary-treasurer of the writers association, was based on a secret vote that covered only regular season play.

It was the final award of the annual series by the writers, all of which went to players on different clubs.

Lou Piniella of Kansas City was the American League's top rookie. Harmon Killebrew of Minnesota won the American League's Most Valuable Player Award and Willie McCovey of San Francisco won the same MVP honors in the National League.

The Cy Young Award for pitchers was taken by Tom Seaver of New York in the National and shared by Denny McLain of Detroit and Mike Cuellar of Baltimore in the American.

Sizemore, 24, succeeded Johnny Bench, Cincinnati catcher, who was the 1968 winner. He joined such other former Dodger winners as Don Newcombe, Jackie Robinson, Joe Black, Junior Gilliam, Frank Howard and Jim Lefebvre.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, Sizemore taught in Detroit last winter but this year has been employed in the Dodgers' speaking bureau.

He hit .271 in 159 games and had 20 doubles, five triples, four homers and 46 runs batted in.

but the referees demanded Hope kick the extra point, Ronny Brown missed wide right, but 13-6 at that point was sweet to many people's ears.

Actually, it was a night when the Bobcats were off mental peak after the big 14-7 winner at Arkansas only five days earlier, and Camden was as high as a team can be. Yet Hope still held on and won, clearly proving who deserves and who gets that 4-AA title trophy.

Bill Jordan ran eight times for 25 yards to lead Camden's rushers, and end Rayford snagged five passes for 52 yards.

Everybody on the field Wednesday night could be proud of their performance when it was over, and it actually was one of the very rare times when Hope neither fumbled nor lost an interception. That wins ball games, and that wins championships.

Coach Ronnie Higgins was just "happy it's over," and it must have been a proud man who stood as a horde of college coaches from all over stormed the Bobcat dressing room seeking out seniors whom they wanted to recruit.

And they wanted them because of their ability, but also because they are winners. The Hope Bobcats in 1969 had every chance to give up and let things slide on by, but when the battle was over the championship came to rest in our winning-starved town.

Next year it will be tougher. Everyone will shoot for the champs, and it will be expected for Hope to win rather than a surprise when the Bobcats came out on top. It is a big challenge to repeat as winners, but the basic ingredient of pride and winning tradition are hearty established.

Bring on Ashdown.

Arkansas, Texas Post Wins, Meet for the National Title Dec. 6

Hog Defense Was Key to Victory

By HARRY KING

Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas' defense, which leads the nation against scoring, did nothing Thursday to damage its reputation.

The second-ranked Razorbacks intercepted five passes and dumped the Texas Tech quarterback nine times in a 33-0 victory over the Red Raiders.

"Our defense was magnificent," said Coach Frank Broyles. "It was our best defense since the Sugar Bowl."

He was referring to Arkansas' 16-2 upset of Georgia in the Jan. 1, 1969 Sugar Bowl in which the defense shut down the then unbeaten Bulldogs at every turn.

Thursday's nationally televised victory over Tech sends Arkansas into a Dec. 6 showdown with high-scoring Texas at Fayetteville, sporting a 9-0 record, same as the top-ranked Longhorns, and a 15-game winning streak.

The winner will take the Southwest Conference championship, gain the host spot in the Cotton Bowl against Notre Dame and have a clear shot at the national championship.

Thursday, the Razorbacks were successful early using their linebackers to pressure Tech's quarterbacks.

"Our game plan against a team that likes to throw is to blitz," Broyles said. "If we are successful we stay with it. And we were successful today."

Arkansas showed its offensive versatility when Tech jammed its linebackers in tight, stacking up the middle.

"We knew we were going to have to throw," Broyles said. "Bill (Montgomery) has regained his confidence and he did a real good job."

Montgomery completed 13 of 22 passes for 220 yards and set up tailback Bill Burnett's three touchdowns with tosses to fullback Russ Carber, tight end Pat Morrison and split receivers John Rees and Chuck Dicus.

Ever since the Arkansas-Texas game was rescheduled from the middle of October to the first week of December, there had been talk of the two teams matching perfect records.

Tech Coach J. T. King, who lost 49-7 early in the season to Texas, refused to compare the two, saying, "Just let the people that pay $6 find out next week."

"I think really the pressure kept building up on us," Broyles said. "It's the most pressure I've ever seen. We were favored in every game and we had to keep anyone from knocking us off. It was quite a task, getting those nine out of the way."

So, what about Texas? "Please, let me enjoy this one a day or two," he said.

The victory over Texas Tech was the 100th for Broyles, 95 of them at Arkansas.

Burnett, upping his season's total of touchdowns to 19 and his career total to 35, dived a yard twice for scores, then blasted eight yards for another. He gained 100 yards on 20 carries and took over the lead in the Southwest Conference rushing race with 818 yards.

The other Arkansas scoring came on Russell Cody's nine-yard run and Bill McClard's field goals of 33 and 29 yards.

Broyles said the Razorbacks did their best job yet in rushing the passer.

"We didn't expect them to blitz that much or on the downs they did blitz," said Tech quarterback Charles Napper.

King called middle linebacker Cliff Powell "one of the best linebackers we've had in this league for a long time."

"It looked to me that Arkansas' game plan was based on the fact that they could control the line of scrimmage better than we could," King said.

"We were in position three or four times for field goals, but the object is to win, not just put points on the board," he added.

Razorback linebacker Lynn Garner summed it up by saying, "We knew we had to win this one. We went out there and did."

Bobby Orr
Knows How to Break Slump

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bobby Orr sure knows how to pick a way to break out of a slump—at least, what's considered a slump for him.

The Boston veteran, who had gone four games without a goal and two without a point, slammed home a pair of 55-footers and helped set up another goal Thursday night to power the Bruins to a 6-4 National Hockey League victory over Philadelphia.

Orr's production gave him the undisputed NHL scoring lead. He entered the game tied with Phil Goyette of St. Louis, who was idle Thursday night, but now leads the race with six goals and 27 assists for 33 points.

Meanwhile, Frank Mahovlich scored a pair of goals as Detroit snapped a six-game winless streak with a 5-1 victory over Los Angeles in Thursday night's only other NHL activity.

Orr's first long slapshot, while the Flyers were a man short, tied it 2-2 in the first period. Then he put the Bruins ahead on his next blast midway in the second session.

However, Philadelphia's Jim Johnson, who had produced the Flyers' first two goals, helped set up Bill Sutherland's equalizer at 1:26 of the third period.

But, a few minutes later the Bruins came up with the decisive tallies. John Bucyk tipped in his own rebound on a power play at 6:09 and Johnny McKenzie also converted his own rebound just 19 seconds later.

Gary Dornhoefer sliced the margin to one less than a minute later, but Phil Esposito gave the Bruins an insurance marker at 13:42.

Vikings Take Dist. Crown in Snow

By ED SCHUYLER JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer
Championship football teams come up with the unexpected—like the 12-foot-7, 503-pound razzle-dazzle combination of the Minnesota Vikings.

The Vikings clinched the title in the Central Division of the National Football League by blanking Detroit in the snow Thursday, 27-0, and the final Minnesota touchdown was a real stunner.

In the fourth quarter, Alan Page, a 6-foot-4, 255-pound defensive tackle tipped a pass by Detroit quarterback Greg Landry and Jim Marshall, a 6-foot-3, 248-pound defensive end intercepted it on the Lions' 41-yard line.

Marshall chugged toward the end zone, and when it looked like Landry might force him out of bounds on the 12, he lateraled the ball to Page, who rumbled in for the touchdown.

In three other Thanksgiving Day games, Dallas tied San Francisco 24-24 in the NFL, while Kansas City trounced Denver 31-17 and San Diego upset Houston 21-17 in the American Football League.

Los Angeles is at Washington, Cleveland at Chicago, Atlanta at Baltimore, Philadelphia at New York.

Runs of 2 and 3 yards, quarterback James Street scored on an 8-yard run and Ted Koy hit from 7 yards out.

Royal pulled his first offensive unit shortly before halftime and the first defensive team came out with 4:35 left in the third quarter.

Quarterback Rocky Self passed three yards to Ross Brubaker and Jim Piper returned a blocked punt four yards in the fourth quarter to finally get the Aggies on the scoreboard.

Kenny Graham's 19-yard run with an interception produced the winning touchdown for San Diego, 6-6, which fought back from a 17-7 deficit. The loss for Houston, 5-5-2, means New York can win the Eastern Division by beating Oakland Sunday.

Houston quarterback Pete Beathard sprained his right foot in the second quarter.

Q—I have lichen planus. What causes it? Will it cause my hair to fall out? Is there any cure for it?

A—The cause of this itching skin disease is unknown. It may involve the scalp and cause scarring but loss of hair is not a characteristic feature. Valisone, Synalar, Kenalog and Cordran creams will clear it up.

Q—I have neurodermatitis.

Astronauts Near Landing in Hawaii
ABOARD USS HORNET (AP)
— Laughing it up just as they did on the moon, the Apollo 12 lunar explorers badgered "Lunnewog" Richard F. Gordon Jr. with hijinks as they neared today's landing in Hawaii.
Charles Conrad Jr. and Alan L. Bean could not contain their glee when a gloomy Gordon appeared at the window of their quarantine van with this sign around his neck:
"Beware! Luney wog. Unclean! Unpredictable!"
What's more, Gordon had his hat and flight suit on backward.
Gordon, a Navy man like Conrad and Bean, had never before crossed the equator aboard ship. That meant he was a "pollywog," or in his case a "luney wog," recalling Gordon's 36 hours in lunar orbit.
As luck would have it, he was bottled up in the quarantine van with four "shellbacks"—the two astronauts and the doctor and technician also in quarantine, all of whom had crossed the equator before.
Conrad and Bean, who laughed merrily as they puttered about the moon while Gordon stayed behind in the mothership, bragged that they had made Gordon stay up late at night since splashdown Monday.
The astronauts actually crossed the equator Wednesday but Conrad and Bean decided to wait until Thanksgiving Day to pull the traditional seagoing initiation on their crewmate.
The Hornet arrives late today in Pearl Harbor, where a 20-minute welcoming ceremony is planned. The silver quarantine van will be loaded on a flatbed trailer and driven to Hickam Air Force Base for a flight aboard an Air Force cargo plane to Ellington AFB near Houston's Manned Spacecraft Center. They are scheduled to arrive there at dawn Saturday.
Conrad, Gordon and Bean, who blasted from their homeland 15 days ago, must stay quarantined in the lunar receiving laboratory at the Space Center until Dec. 10.
Twelve men ranging from physicians to cooks will be isolated with the three space voyagers, along with Dr. Clarence Jerigan and technician Brock Randall Stone, who have been shut off with the spacemen since splashdown.
The astronauts completed four days of "self-debriefing" into tape recorders Thursday and observed Thanksgiving with a specially prepared turkey dinner heated in a microwave oven.
Thousands of feet of tape recordings from the debriefings were flown to the Space Center. Officials will use the tapes to analyze the flight.
Football spurred the astronauts' interest Thursday. Bean and Stone, both graduates of the University of Texas, asked for the score of the Thanksgiving Day classic between Texas and Texas A&M as soon as possible. Texas whipped A&M 49 to 12.
The all-Navy moon voyagers also announced they took a "Beat Army" banner to the moon. In a message to the U.S. Navy Academy, Annapolis, Md., the crew reported:
"Your 'Beat Army' flag carried to the moon and back aboard Apollo 12. Will be returned to you upon release from quarantine period. Good luck and beat Army!"
Navy meets Army Saturday in Philadelphia. The Naval Academy's midshipmen sent the "Beat Army" flag to the astronauts weeks ago with a request to take it to the moon.
"Richest Hill on Earth"
Butte, Mont., was once known as the "richest hill on earth" long before it gained a reputation for its silver and copper mines. placer gold discovered in 1864 had produced $15 million by 1869, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica

Bill Watson Deacon at 1st Baptist
Bill S. Watson was ordained as a deacon of First Baptist Church during the evening service Sunday, November 23. After the ordaining council, composed of the pastor, Rev. Gerald W. Trussell, and all active deacons of First Baptist Church, questioned the candidate, recommendation was made to the church that it proceed with the ordination of Mr. Watson.
The church was unanimous in accepting the recommendation. Most inspiring and challenging charges were given to the church and to the deacons, and a Certificate of Ordination was presented to Mr. Watson. The ceremony of Laying on of Hands by the deacons was followed by the congregation extending to the new deacon the hand of commendation.
Mr. Watson has been a member of more than ten years. During this time he has taught a men's Bible class, served on many committees, being chairman of the budget planning committee last year. At present he is serving as Superintendent of the grades 10 and 11 department. His wife is the former Sybil Newton. Daughter, Debbie is a second-year student at Ouachita Baptist University, and Daughter Barbile, is a sixth grader. Mr. Watson is an executive of the Cornbelt Hatcheries of Hope.

Get The Light From GOD'S LIGHTHOUSE

GUIDE YOU TO HIS CHURCH

MAKING PREPARATION

... but maybe too late!

True we have our furnaces fired, our machinery greased and men to man the tasks... but where is God?

Nations are tampering with His creation and threatening every day to blow it to bits... with no thought of God.

His church is on the corner and His servants are telling His simple story but it means little to men bent on destroying things and people.

No nation can curse God and get away with it.

He will paralyze them as He did the serpent.

Likewise, He will deliver them as He did those in bondage long ago when they seek Him. Whenever and wherever men humble themselves God will make a way. Why not spend some time making preparation for a greater day... the final day?

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCHGOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Ladycats, Bobcats to Nashville

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Tomorrow night sends the Hope Bobcats and Lady Cats to Nashville for the annual battle with the Scrappers, with game time set for 6:30 p.m.

The games will be played in the new Nashville gym on the year-old NHS campus, and for the Bobcats it will be the season opener while the Scrappers are playing Arkadelphia tonight. Brackets have been received for the Ouachita Invitational girls tourney next week at Arkadelphia, and on Thursday at 6:15 p.m. Hope will face Mississippi County, a basketball school from Northeast Arkansas.

And now everyone is through with football, or so we think. Yet those diehards looking for an outstanding game could travel to Arkadelphia tonight and watch the Ashdown-McGehee showdown in State Class A semifinals.

Ashdown is 11-1 and McGehee is 12-0, and this writer will be covering that game for a story in tomorrow morning's Hope Star.

Palmer Holds Share as 2nd Round Starts

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — Arnold Palmer held a share of the lead going into today's second round of the $100,000 Heritage Golf Classic — the first time he's been in such a position since his comeback — but the old charger is far, far from satisfied.

"It's one of the best rounds I've had in a long time," Palmer said after shooting a three-under par 68 Thursday for a tie with George Archer in the No. 1 spot.

"But I'm still not putting," Palmer continued.

"If I'd putted like I have in the past, I could have been eight under par after seven holes. It would have been unusual, but it was very possible."

As it was, he birdied three of the first seven, just missing an eagle on the par five second, and played par golf the rest of the way. In all, he missed five putts of six feet or less, and two more from eight feet, an indication of just how strong his long game is.

Archer had more trouble with the double-tough Little Harbour Town golf links, an oceanside, 6,655 yard, par 71 layout that Jim Colbert called "the toughest course we've played all year."

Mississippi Ready for Sugar Bowl

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Texas A&M tried to grab a Texas Wishbone Thanksgiving Day and wound up empty-handed... and Texas Tech just got the bird from Arkansas.

Texas' bone-jarring Longhorns smashed Texas A&M 49-12 despite the Aggies' use of the Wishbone-T offense and Arkansas smothered Texas Tech 33-0 in traditional holiday games Thursday.

Their victories set up a classic battle between top-ranked Texas and second-ranked Arkansas on Dec. 6. Both undefeated in nine games, the Longhorns and Razorbacks meet that day for the Southwest Conference title, a spot in the Cotton Bowl and probably No. 1 ranking.

"We used the Wishbone-T to get fullback Steve Burks and tailback Larry Stegent into the game at the same time," said Texas Tech Coach Gene Stallings. "Our line just wasn't blocking as good as needed."

Stallings added: "Texas is as good a football team as I've ever seen. I know they're the best I've ever played. They are better than I thought."

Arkansas' brutish linemen gobbled up Red Raiders' quarterback Charles Napper.

"Our defense was magnificent," exulted Razorback Coach Frank Broyles.

In the day's only other major game, 14th-ranked Mississippi clouted Mississippi State 48-22 behind the artistry of Archie Manning.

The Longhorns' nation-leading rushers roamed all over the Aggies' defense. Jim Bertelson raced 63 yards for a touchdown on the fourth play of the game — and the Longhorns were off and running for 330 yards.

Meanwhile, in Little Rock, Arkansas was having a regular Thanksgiving Day picnic with Texas Tech. The Razorbacks intercepted five passes and dumped Napper nine times.

"Our game plan against a team that likes to throw is to blitz," said Broyles. "If we are successful we stay with it. And we were successful today."

Texas Tech Coach J. T. King, who lost 49-7 early in the season to Texas, wouldn't compare the two.

The Army-Navy game highlights a light football card Saturday.

Oakland and Jets Head to Showdown

NEW YORK (AP) — With the National Football League races all but over, pro attention shifts Sunday to the meeting of Oakland and the New York Jets at Shea Stadium, another pairing that could be a preview of the

Jan. 4 title game.

On comparative scores it has to be the Raiders all the way. They beat Kansas City last week, 27-24, after the Chiefs had dumped the Jets 34-16 the previous Sunday. However, it doesn't work that way in the pro leagues.

Joe Namath and friends will be up for this one, coming off that 40-7 romp over Cincinnati, but Oakland still remembers that 27-23 loss at Shea last December, a loss that cost them the big Super Bowl check.

Let's take a look at the National Football League and American Football League action for Sunday.

NFL
Los Angeles 27, Washington 20—Rams can't afford to let up because Sonny Jurgensen is having one of his best seasons under new boss Vince Lombardi. Rams' game plan sure to call for plenty of Les Josephson and Larry Smith up the middle to take advantage of Skins' soft underbelly. A win will be the division clincher for Los Angeles. Baltimore 24, Atlanta 21—The Colts found it tough going Oct. 5 at Atlanta, but won 21-14. With Randy Johnson lost for the season, Falcons are reactivating Bob Berry, John Unitas or Earl Morrall should have all the time in the world to throw the ball and Tom Matte should sparkle. Cleveland 17, Chicago 14—Browns rolled up early lead against Giants last week with help of New York mistakes, will find Bears' defense a different piece of cake. Cleveland offense has the muscle but they'd better watch out for Gale Sayers. Green Bay 21, New York 14— and are hurting with Bart Starr out of action but Giants are vulnerable to the run. Packer defense still tough against the pass. Could be a low scoring game. New Orleans 26, Philadelphia 24—Flip a coin on this one. Both teams are moving the ball. Bill Kilmer vs. Norm Snead and nobody stops anybody. Defense? Who needs it? St. Louis 30, Pittsburgh 20—Steelers are staggering with nine-game losing streak and Cardinals are also struggling with feast one week and famine the next. Should be a feast day for Cards. Oakland 27, New York 24—Raiders coming off a toughie in Kansas City while Jets had a breeze against Cincinnati. Dar-yl Lamonica will work on jet corners and Jim Turner's field goals won't be quite enough for New York with Don Maynard out of action. Boston 21, Miami 17—Patriots seem to have found themselves in recent days while Dolphins are feeble without Bob Griese. Miami won 17-16 Nov. 9 in Boston but things have changed.

'We Love Michigan' Roads & Windshields Fact Correction

I thought Chris Schenkel, chief announcer for ABC's telecast of the Arkansas-Texas Tech football game at Little Rock Thanksgiving Day, wrapped it up beautifully when he said that the combination of Michigan's victory over Ohio State and Arkansas' defeat of Texas Tech made upcoming Dec. 6 a historic date.

What he said, quoting from memory, amounted to this:

"It is fitting that this 100th anniversary of college football should see for the first time in history two undefeated teams battling in the same game for both their conference title and probably the national collegiate championship—and that's how it will be when the Texas Longhorns meet the Arkansas Razorbacks at Fayetteville Saturday, Dec. 6."

But the real honor goes to the University of Michigan, whose heroic victory knocked Ohio State out of the No. 1 spot in the national ratings. It was this that put Texas No. 1 and Arkansas No. 2—and now makes their Dec. 6 meeting nationally significant.

I am here and now suggesting that both Longhorn and Razorback fans send a telegram of thanks to the University of Michigan. It might read like the one I am sending:

"Michigan—we love you. Beat Southern Cal in the Rose Bowl is our prayer. TEXAS AND ARKANSAS" (Adding your own name)

I suggest this joint signature, obviously.

The suggestion is being forwarded to the athletic departments of both Arkansas and Texas.

If you've ever had to replace the windshield in your car—and who hasn't?—you will know what this is about.

The cost of windshields is fantastically high—and getting higher. This was brought home to me this morning when I received a copy of the invoice the insurer had covered for the replacement of a shield in one of our leased cars. It had been cracked by flying pea-gravel on a freshly-surfaced road, and replacement was ordered at the time the vehicle underwent the state safety inspection.

Insurers in Arkansas—and inevitably those who pay the premiums for insurance—are being hurt by bad practice of the State Highway Department. This is something your editor has pointed out in previous years.

I noted in a tour of the West in 1958—the year we took a crew of newboys to Yellowstone and Mesa Verde national parks—that when Western states resurface a road with asphalt and pea-gravel they do it one lane at a time, closing that lane for a day or two until the mixture has "set." It's an inconvenience to travelers, of course, for cars are sometimes stacked up a mile while alternating in use of the remaining single lane. But it stops flying gravel and saves windshield.

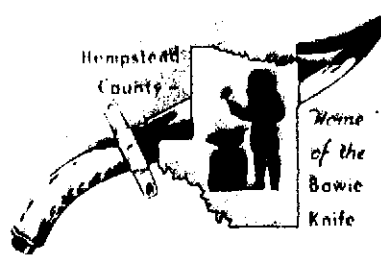

Here in Arkansas we resurface both lanes at once and maintain traffic on both lanes. There may be signs cautioning drivers to slow down, but in the absence of state police this is optional. So a car approaching you at high speed showers you with pea-gravel—and your windshield has had it... $141.82 worth!

It's time the State of Arkansas woke up and adopted the Western states' sound highway practice—with savings for all automobile operators. For what costs your insurer eventually costs you in higher policy premiums.

In Wednesday's tribute to Mike Kelly for organizing charter bus tours backing the Razorbacks in their games with SMU at Dallas The Star inadvertently reported that this year Mike put 80 South-west Arkansas fans in the stadium. I could have claimed that this was a typographical error and the figure should have been 180—but I'll confess it was my own writing error. Bud Campbell, the Razorback radio network announcer, gave Mike credit over the air, putting the number of local fans at 180—which was the figure I remembered, but lost 100 in the writing.

There were four charter buses to this year's Arkansas-SMU game—and an actual 170 were on board. I checked this out this morning with Mr. Kelly.

Casualties in War Nearly 300,000

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. battlefield casualties in nearly nine years of the Vietnam war reached the 300,000 mark this week and nearly half of them occurred in the 18 months since the Paris peace talks began, official sources said today.

On the battlefield, communiques said fighting was light. The Viet Cong ambushed 300 South Vietnamese troops in the Mekong Delta and killed 36 men and wounded 12. There were no known enemy losses.

The U.S. Command reported 32 enemy rocket and shelling attacks during the night in which seven Americans were wounded. A spokesman said U.S. troops killed 47 enemy in battles near the demilitarized zone and south of Da Nang Thursday. Two Americans were killed and 18 were wounded in these clashes.

The U.S. Command casualty figures for the period from Jan. 1, 1961, through last Saturday showed 39,572 Americans killed in action, 258,779 wounded and 1,341 missing or captured.

While these figures total 299,692, officials said they do not include at least 308 Americans who have been killed or wounded from Sunday through today, and this puts total casualties over the 300,000 mark. The official casualty figures for this week won't be released until next Thursday.

The U.S. Command said 6,995 U.S. troops have died in Vietnam from accidents and other causes "not as the result of hostile action."

In the same nine-year period, according to official figures, 575,249 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops have been killed.

Since the peace talks in Paris began May 13, 1968, official statistics show that 16,620 Americans have been killed and another 113,997 wounded.

The Vietnam war has become the third costliest foreign war for the United States, surpassed only by the two world wars.

In World War I, there were 53,513 American battlefield deaths, 63,195 other deaths, and 204,002 U.S. troops wounded. World War II casualties were 292,131 Americans killed, 115,185 U.S. deaths from other causes, and 670,846 Americans wounded.

Chances Are You Don't Know Why Price of Eggs Changes So Quickly

By JOHN HENRY
AP Business Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — If you're an average American housewife, you buy and then bake, scramble or fry 320 eggs every year—and that's just for yourself.

Chances are, however, you don't know why you're paying 51 cents a dozen for eggs one month and 63 cents a few months later.

Blame some of it on New York. At least some critics would.

New York is where four hundredths of one per cent of the eggs in the country are sold at wholesale.

But the price of the other 99.96 per cent is influenced by figures chalked up on a blackboard in a downtown Manhattan office building.

Here's how it works: At 10:30 a.m. every day a handful of professional traders gets set before the blackboard in the New York Mercantile Exchange.

For the next 10 minutes they conduct "egg call." They match orders from producers and buyers. They field hectic phone calls, chalk up bids and make contracts for the delivery of fresh eggs.

These traders deal in minimum lots of 10,000 eggs, or 1,500 dozen. The eggs are not bought by supermarket chains. Most are bought by institutions—hospitals, hotels, schools—in the New York area.

The prices paid by these institutions are weighted by egg prices on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange and professional

Desegregation Surprise Was Justice Dept. Asking for More Delay

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon didn't exactly leap up and shout "Huzzah" on Oct. 23—the day the Supreme Court ruled that separate but equal schools for Negroes don't square with the equal protection of the Constitution guarantees all citizens. Then, and from then on, Supreme Court decisions and supporting decisions of lower courts have attacked segregation and put presidents on the spot.

Starting with Dwight D. Eisenhower, the White House encountered the trauma and political repercussions that can accompany efforts to achieve unity and racial equality among blacks and whites.

If they felt they should speak up, or act to reinforce court rulings, they risked offending conservatives, segregationists and the South. If they wanted to sit tight, they invited the wrath of liberals and segments of the North.

Accordingly, through the presidential terms of Eisenhower, John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson, integration edicts tended to draw from these Nixon predecessors muted or tentative public statements—or none at all. And with the Supreme market opinion. This results in a "going price" for eggs across the country in the daily publication, "The Producers Price Current."

This is the bible for the trade and is called the Urner Barry Report. It is published by Urner Barry Publications of Jersey City, N.J. Its prices are used by producers and wholesalers around the country.

Some authorities would like to change this.

The USDA says wholesale pricing is "not consistent" with nationwide supply and demand.

"It can be off as much as three or four cents a dozen," said Jerry Faulkner, general manager of the United Egg Producers, a Georgia-based producers' cooperative.

"What good is a price that goes up one day and down the next. The value of eggs doesn't really change that fast," he said.

The wholesale price of eggs traded on the New York Mercantile Exchange are the prices the farmers are paid.

The reputation for honesty enjoyed by the 112-year-old Urner Barry report is unimpeachable, according to many industry sources including Faulkner, but he believes the trading system itself is open to manipulation.

Herb Gabriel, head of the national egg department of the A&P grocery chain, the nation's largest, believes the "law of supply and demand over a long period has dictated egg prices." A & P and other chains buy di-

Will Open 2nd Box of Moon Rocks

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer
SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Scientists today open the second box of Apollo 12 moon rocks, a chest containing carefully documented samples and soil gouged from more than two feet beneath the surface.

The space agency also plans to release 29 more color pictures taken during man's second moon-landing mission. Officials Thursday released spectacular color and black and white photos and color movies of the two moon walks, a fascinating earthly eclipse of the sun and other highlights of the mission.

Geologists are eager to open the second chest to begin examination of 12 to 15 bags of rocks that were photographed and labeled by the astronauts before packing.

And one of the core tubes, which the astronauts pounded into the surface, is packed with soil from 24 to 30 inches deep. Scientists believe that deeply

Army May Invoke Two Never-Tested Justice Codes in Massacre

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon officials may invoke two never before tested sections of the military justice code to try any former soldiers accused in the alleged My Lai massacre.

One of these in Article 18, generally applying to war crimes, and the other is Article 21 which, lawyers said, was intended to preserve common law permitting military commissions to sit in criminal cases.

Fifteen of the 24 men now under investigation, but not yet charged, have returned to civilian life since the alleged mass slaying of more than 100 South Vietnamese civilians on March 16, 1968.

Prosecution of the nine soldiers still on active duty poses no legal problem. They clearly are subject to the military justice code under which 1st Lt. William L. Calley Jr. faces court martial on premeditated murder charges and S. Sgt. David Mitchell has been charged with assault with intent to kill.

However, serious questions confront government legal authorities on the course to follow in trying to prosecute any of the ex-soldiers deemed to have been involved.

This is because the Supreme Court in 1955 rejected military court martial for former servicemen in freeing a discharged Air Force sergeant who had been arrested by military authorities and flown to Korea to face a murder charge after he
